Sydney is Kind and Includes Daisy Margaret

By Sheri Wilson

Sydney is Kind and Includes Daisy Margaret is the first in Sheri Wilson's Kindness Series, teaching children about acts of kindness from an early age.

Sydney is presented with Daisy Margaret by her grandmother. She loves Daisy Margaret very much and takes her everywhere. Come see the fun adventures they have together.

Sheri Wilson also known as "Miss Sheri the Clown" was raised in the small town of Grampian Pennsylvania. Her loving parents Marie and Merlin Mullins taught her to always take care of your family's needs. Then continue your day by being kind and caring to everyone one you meet.

Sheri married her high school sweetheart, Dan. They have four daughters: Danielle, Jeni, Holly, and Terry. Their daughters married and have blessed them with 9 grandchildren. Miss Sheri decided to write each of her grandchildren a kindness book that was about them. The books teach the grandchildren about kindness, demonstrating a kindness act on each page. Miss Sheri is a professional clown, volunteering at many charities. She decided to start reading and teaching children about kindness from her grandchildren's books at her events. Now she is sharing them with you! Miss Sheri, Danielle, and Terry are also writing a series of books to teach children how to understand and be kind to other children with disabilities and illnesses. They want to teach families that all children can be amazing friends. When there is awareness and kindness, it leads to great friendships.
